The Security Innovation Network™ (SINET) Showcase 2010

presents the ideal forum for examining alternative technologies that will advance the cybersecurity field and address threats to our nation's cyber-environment. The SINET Showcase brings together federal government agencies, industry security leaders, cyber entrepreneurs, venture capital firms and researchers – all with the shared goal of discovering novel solutions to global security threats.

Don't Miss the Opportunity to Participate

Use this unique opportunity to share your expertise by participating in top-level discussions on how we overcome the vulnerabilities plaguing our infrastructure and protect our country's vital assets. The goal of SINET is to facilitate collaboration between the public and private sectors and your contributions are invaluable to this process. Join your colleagues in strengthening this critical collaborative effort to ensure we stay focused on accelerating innovation in security technology.

The SINET Showcase includes exciting occasions for learning and contributing:

- Demonstrations of innovative technologies that offer potential solutions to cybersecurity challenges
- Panel discussions on pressing national security issues
- Series of workshops targeting challenges facing early stage and emerging growth companies
- Thought leaders from across major industries, government, academia and the world of financing

What's unique about the Security Innovation Network?

The Security Innovation Network (SINET), creator of the IT Security Entrepreneurs' Forum, takes public-private sector collaboration to a new level by accelerating the search for the most promising cyber technologies from across the United States. SINET matches solutions of the highest merit with the urgent needs of federal civilian, defense and intelligence agencies, as well as, the commercial sector.

Who Should Attend:
